Mas. Buran yesterday identified James Green as the murderer of her husband. The account of his arrest was published in our last issue. We understand that a true bill will probably be presented by the grand jury. There now appears to be no doubt that Green is guilty of murder; and, if so, we trust he may suffer the penalty. BUTLEDGE ESTATE .- On yesterday Mesers. J. and R. W. Brown sold thirteen lots in the Rutledge Addition for $255 20, containing 665 feetveraging $39 89% per foot. The lowest price at $30, and the highest at $50 per foot. The day was very cold and disagreeable. Had the weather been favorable, prices would undoubte ly have been higher. Accompany to the proclamation of the Mayor, be found in another column, it will be noticed that property owners in different parts of the city are notified to construct new stone or brick pavements. In the Supreme Court, yesterday, but little be iness was transacted. We understand that some cases of the Ninth (Nashville) Circuit will b heard to day, and that the Court will probably soon adjourn until after the holidays. Thomas A. Kircheval, W. R. Tor Shane, J. H. Smith, and R. M. Smith were yesterday admitted as practising at torneys.

THE RIVER.-Yesterday the depth of water of arrivals were the Leni Lesti from Pittsburg, Imserial from Cuiro, Emma Flord from Cincinnati. The Imperial had to eargo, but brought a number of passengers. Line.—We wish to call the attention of the mer-cionits and shippers to the importance, if not strict accessity, of sustaining the packet lines in the Camberland and Tennesses rivers. Now that navigation is fully resumed and business as fully redozed, there is apt to be a great number of what is denominated outsiders thrusting their moses into the trade. We are however, strongly in favor of free trade and fair competition on river and railroad lines, but the merchants know full well the troubles they have had and the losses incurred in not having lines of regular boats in these waters.

FARE AV DR. GOODLYT'S CHURCH,-Last night, a the corner of Summer and Elm streets, a fair for the benefit of the above named church, was inaugurated by the presentation of a series of tab car rigants to a full house.

Among the various seenes, one which excites onsiderable merriment was a personification of the proceedings of Santa Claus, as commonly rej resented to the youthful imagination. The ol gentleman came down the chimney, filled the tuckings, and made his exit just as he is said to do in the various chronicles extant. Severa other tableaux of equal, or greater merit, were given in a very creditable manaer. Horn's Brass Band was present, and played various airs between the scenes. It is needless to my that a supper table was spread with exquisite taste, as this matter was under the charge of the ladies, and they are commonly acknowledged to be adopts in that depart

The tableaux will be presented again to night, and the proceeds devoted to the completion of the Accounts to the statements contained in th Memphis papers, the condition of things in that city is fast approaching to the condition of severa other southern cities. Robberies and various crim are of frequent occurrence. In advocating the es tablishment of a special police, the Memphis Com mercial says: "In Mississippi, and in other States milarly threatened, the militia has been called ad companies enrolled, two to each county, whose duty it is to patrol their respecting procincts and serve order, and hold themselves in readiness for any emergency that may arise. In default of the existence of a militin force here, we suggest that one hundred and fifty men be called into ser vice in each ward, as an addition to the police force, and that twenty five of them do duty each night, the remainder holding themselves in readiness to answer an alarm to be given by the fire bells, one tap every three minutes for the first word, two for the second, and so on to the eighth and for a general assembly, the alarm as at present for the fire department."

THE NASHVILLE GASLIGHT COMPANY. - Thinking that some of our readers might be interested in perusing an account of the origin and working of this Company, we have made some effort to obtain data which would enable us to furnish a detailed stalement of its operations.

The project of forming a gaslight company was influence a charter was obtained in 1849. In 1851 the company commenced operations, with a capital of $100,000. This capital was afterwards increased to nearly $20,000; and the Legiclature. at its present session, authorized an increase of capital to $500,000, if desired. Is 1851 there were only one hundred const of gas in the city; now, there are nearly one thousand. About eight miles of main pipe are laid at present. The large growth, however, of the popu-present. Newmansville, Greene county: Jacob Bright relation of this city, has induce I the directors, not lation of this city, has induced the directors, not early to increase the number of pipes in the city, but also to lay new ones in South Nashville. This will probably be done as speedily as possible.

Besides the gas farnished to offices, private dwellings, etc., there are about two hundred street lames now hit every night, and this number will the postmaster, vice J. A. McKanuy.

lamps now lit every night, and this number will 25,000,000, for the production of which 100,000 bushels of best Pittsburg coal are required. The yearly revenue tax paid by the Company is over $6,000; and though authorized by law to collect it from the consumers, advantage has not yet been taken of this privilege. The price charged for the gas per thousand cubic feet is $5, with ten per cent off if promptly paid. Instead of whiskey, which was formerly used in the meters, the Company is now prepared to fur

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, SECRETARY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

To All to Whom these Presents May Come, Know ye, that, whereas, the Congress of the nited States, on the 1st of February last, passed a resolution, which is in the words

ollowing, namely : "A resolution submitting to the Legisla-Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, two-thirds of both Houses concurring, that the following article be proposed to the Legislatures of the several States as an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, which when ratified by three-fourths of said Legis latures, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as a part of said Constitution, ARTICLE VIII. Section 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary rvitude, except as a punishment for crim shall exist within the United States or any place subject to their jurisdiction. SEC. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce his article by appropriate legislation.

And, whereas, it appears from official do ments on file in this department that the Amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed as aforesaid, has been ratified by the Legislatures of the States of Illinois, Rhode Island, Michigan, New York, West Virginia, Maine, Kansas, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Ohio Missouri, Nevada, Indiana, Louisiana, Min nesota, Wisconsin, Vermont, Tennessee, Arkansas, Connecticut, New Hampshire, South Carolina, Alabama, North Carolina and corgia, in all twenty-seven States: And whereas, the whole number of States

the United States is thirty-six; And whereas, the before specially named States, whose Legislatures have ratified the said proposed amendment, constitute threeurths of the whole number of States in the United States:

Now, therefore, be it known that L. Will LIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State of the nited States, by virtue and in pursuance of the second section of the act of Congress aproved the 20th of April, 1818, entitled "An Act to provide for the publication of the laws of the United States, and for other puposes," do hereby certify that the amend nent aforesaid has become valid to all in tents and purposes as a part of the Constituion of the United States.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the Department of State to be affixed. Done at the City of Washington, this 18th day of December, in the year of our Lord 186 and of the independence of the United States of America the 90th. WM. H. SEWARD.

cantor Guthrie of Kentucky, on the Caucus Resolution. We extract the following from the recent of Senator Guthrie: "Mr. Guthrie-I wish to ask the friends of this resolution if it is contemplated that this committee shall take evidence and rethe shoals was eight feet, and rising rapidly. The port that evidence to the two Houses. If they are only to take what is open to every nember of the Senate; the fact that the rebellion has been suppressed; the fact that the President of the United States has ap pointed officers to collect the taxes, and i ome instances judges and other officers, that he has sent the postoffice into all the States that there have been found enough individnals loval to the country to accept the offices; the fact that the President has issued his proclamation to all these States appointprovisional governors, that they have all elected conventions, that the conven tions have rescinded the ordinances of se cession, that most of them have amended their constitutions and abolished slavery, and the Legislatures of some of them have passed the amendment to the Constitution on the subject of slavery-if they are only to take these facts which are open and clear to us all. I can see no necessity for such a committee. My principal objection to the resolution is, that this committee can give us no information which we do not nov possess, coupled with the fact that the loyal aservative men of the United State North, South, East, and West, do most earnestly desire that we shall so act that there shall be no longer a doubt that we are the United States of America in full accord and > harmony with each other, "I know it has been said that the President had no authority to do these things. I read the Constitution and laws of this cour try differently. He is to 'take care that the laws be faithfully executed? he is to sup-press insurrection and rebellion. The power is put in his hands, and I do not see why when he marches into a rebel State, he has not authority to put down a rebel govern friendly to the United States and in accord ance with it; I do not see why he cannot do that while the war goes on, and I do not see why he may not do it after the war is over. The people in those States lie at the meren of the nation. I see no usurpation in what he has done, and if the work is well done, I, for one, am ready to accept it. Are we to send out a commission to see what the men whom he has appointed have done? It is said that they are not to be relied on; that they have been guilty of treason, and we will no trust them. I hope that no such ideas will prevail here. I think this will be a cold chock to the warm feelings of the nation for restoration, for equal privileges and equal rights. They were in insurrection. have suppressed that insurrection. They are now States of the Union ; and if they come here cording to the laws of the States, they are cutitled, in my judgment, to representation, and w have no right to refuse it. They are in a minority, and they would be in a minority even if they meant now what they felt when they raised their arms against the govern-ment; but they do not, and of those whom they will send here to represent them, nineteen out of the twenty will be just as loval as any of us-even some of those who took up

"I really hope to see some one move modification of the test onth, so that those who have repented of their disloyalty may not be excluded; for I really believe that a great many of those who took up arms honestly and wished to carry out the doctrine of eession, and who have succumbed under the force of our arms and the great force of public opinion, can be trusted a great deal ore than those who did not fight at all. "To conclude, gentlemen, I see no grea first started by Edward King, formerly a music teacher in this city; and was finally taken hold of tination that will result from it, and that will by General Washington Barrow, through whose give us nothing but what we have before us

Ex-GOVENOR PHILIP ALLEN, of Rhode Island, died at his residence in Providence, m Saturday morning.

The very creatures who are figuring in this bu-siness, it should be known, are men who get their first start in life from Southern trade. Some of them are ship and cotton brokers, others are deal-ers in dry goods; all of them money grubbers of the meanest description. Nevertheless, their wealth gives them power, and the power will be exercised at Washington in such manner as will be sure to bring over the Puritaineal majority in Congress to their scheme. LATEST BY TELEGRAPH. FRAUDULENT COTTON DEALERS.—A new game of swindle is being attempted by some man or company of men in and about this city, and if some one or firm is not "put in" for a slice of expense it will be astonishing. The man or men write to some firm south to buy so much cotton, and ship to him or them at this point, and draw for the amount of the invoice. The name of the well-known firm of S. Barker & Co., who siness, has been used in two instances, when NO. 73 BROAD STREET. twenty bales of cotton were ordered-one lot from Nashville, and one lot from New Orleans. The cotton was purchased in Nashville, and sent here to one of our leading houses, to be delivered on payment of draft The firm in New Orleans, Messrs. Walthall & Co., would not make the purchase, as the order was so indefinite. The whole purpose is to have the cotton shipped direct to them or him, and he or they will either sell it by bill of lading, or hypothecate it on bill of lading before its arrival or the arrival or draft of purchase. It is a very fair way of swindling. Some one may be taken in be fore the operation is finished. Look out merchants, and see that you are not the ones
